Click on the left hand side – Edit settings

From there, you will see the option under General > Visible and you click to show to make the course available to students

Additionally, you can also enable students to keep track of assignments/activities they have done by enabling completion tracking in the Edit settings area